

sermonnotes

Be Free: A Study in Galatians

Because of God's grace, power and provision...

The good news of the Gospel is that our God redeems and restores. He can take the messes of our lives and turn them into miracles. He can take the things we would never take glory in and use them for our good and the good of others.

Galatians 1:11–24

Before Paul became the great apostle and leader in the Church he was known as Saul the archenemy of the early Church. His passion was to _____ Christianity and _____ Christians. (Acts 8:1–3)

Saul who became Paul was a...

- _____ of the Law. (Galatians 1:14)
- _____ of the church. (Galatians 1:13, Acts 9:1–6)
- _____ of God's grace. (Galatians 1:15–16)

1. You can have your past forgiven and have a brand-new _____ on life.
 - "Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old has gone, the new has come!" (2 Corinthians 5:20)
2. Your life can be _____ as you embrace the refining of the Holy Spirit. (Galatians 1:16–17)
 - Romans 8:1
3. God can work through your _____ to bring hope and help for others. (Acts 9:19–22, Galatians 1:23)
 - Rabbi Saul became the Apostle Paul and he used his knowledge of the Law to proclaim the hope of the Gospel.
4. There is no limit to what God can do through one person that is _____ to Him. (Galatians 1:23)
 - Paul's life is a testimony to the power of God to transform a person's heart and redirect a life to be used in amazing ways.

Answers: eliminate, kill; Promoter; Persecutor; Preacher; start; transformed; past; fully committed

Want to listen again or share with a friend?
Sermon podcasts are available at gracecovenant.org or on our grace app.