

Life brings times and seasons when we are confronted with:

- A crisis we have no solution to.
- A God opportunity that is bigger than we are.
- A situation that we don't know how to respond to.

2 Chronicles 20:3–12

Navigating the Unknowns of Life

1. _____ to God. (2 Chronicles 20:3)
 - Often, when situations arise in our lives, we talk to everyone but God. (Proverbs 3:5–6)
2. Focus on God through _____. (2 Chronicles 20:3)
 - What we find consistently throughout Scripture is when people humble themselves through the discipline of fasting and set their heart to seek God; He speaks, He acts, and He works on behalf of those who seek Him.

3. Pray God's _____. (2 Chronicles 20:7–9)
 - When you find yourself in an overwhelming situation, or a situation of opportunity, pray God's Word. Declare what God has already revealed.
4. Don't be _____. (2 Chronicles 20:15, 20)
 - When we focus on the problem fear grows, but when we focus on God faith grows.
 - Fear will paralyze you and limit your life, but faith will position you and propel you to experience God's provision.
5. Move in _____. (2 Chronicles 20:21–22)
 - As the Israelites went out worshipping—declaring the greatness of God—God fought for them.

After a great victory, King Jehoshaphat named the valley the Valley of Berakah, which means Valley of Blessing. God had turned their time of trouble to a time of victory, and their time of opportunity to a time of blessing.

Answers: Talk; fasting; promises; afraid; worship
