God is Bigger: Part 1

With a New Year comes new opportunities and new challenges. God desires to work in it all and through it all for our good and His glory.

What God can do in and through your life is not based on your _____ but your _____. As you make yourself available, there is no limit to what God can and will do through your life.

Judges 6:11–16

Life lessons from Gideon

1. God sees and relates to you as you can be, not as _____. (Judges 6:12)
 - Gideon saw himself as a scared farmer while God saw him as a mighty warrior. How might God view you?
2. Move forward _____ of God's presence and provision. (Judges 6:12,16)
 - Courage is not the absence of fear, but God's presence in the midst of fear. Where trust exists, fear subsides. (Hebrews 13:5–6)

3. Don't allow your _____ to determine your belief about God and His Word. Judges 6:13
4. Choose to _____ your way into effectiveness. (Judges 6:14)
 - Often you wait for God to make the first move when He is waiting for you to step out in faith.
5. God works through your _____ for His glory. (Judges 6:15)
 - There is no limit to what God can do as you simply make yourself available.

God is able...

- To turn opposition into opportunity.
- To turn devastating circumstances into places of blessing.
- To turn weakness into strength.
- To turn your past into a better present and future.

Answers: ability, availability; you are; confident; circumstances; act; weakness
