He Will Be Called: Part 1

When the crisis of the Fall happened in the Garden of Eden, God had a _____. He would send His Son to be miraculously born and to sacrificially die so that sin might be defeated, as a result, life would be made available to all who would choose to believe and receive.

The prophet Isaiah foretold the birth of the child—the Son of God—six hundred years before His birth in Bethlehem. Through His names he revealed who Jesus would be and the provision He would bring for humanity.

“For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.”
—Isaiah 9:6

Jesus, as the Wonderful Counselor, helps us with decisions and guides us through the challenges of life.

As our Wonderful Counselor...

- Jesus brings _____ and rest. (Matthew 11:28)
- Jesus guides us with supernatural _____, giving us insight and understanding. (Psalm 32:8)

- Jesus is our _____. (1 John 2:1)
- Jesus is ever present to _____. (Hebrew 13:5–6)

How does He counsel us?

- Through _____. (Philippians 4:6–7)
- Through the Holy Spirit. (John 14:15–17a)
- Through His _____. (2 Timothy 3:16–17)
- Through other believers. (Ephesians 4:29)

In life, you will process a multitude of decisions and face challenges. The good news is you have a Counselor who is working for your good. A child was born to help you.
