

sermonnotes

Unsung Heroes: Rahab

It has been said that the past is the greatest predictor of the future. However, that does not hold true when you factor in the _____ that God can bring in your life.

Joshua 2:1–18

Rahab is a picture of the power of the Lord Jesus to transform any life that comes to Him by faith. The story reminds us that God often works through the most improbable to do the impossible.

Rahab in Rehab

- Rahab was a _____ who worshiped the false gods of the Canaanites. (Joshua 2:1)
- Rahab was a _____ who made her living by selling her body. (Joshua 2:1)
- Rahab chose to believe in the one true God and this was the turning point in her life. (Joshua 2:8)

- Rahab became a part of God's rescue mission and _____ plan. (Joshua 2:14)
- Rahab was taken from the house of _____ and ended up in the hall of _____. (Matthew 1:5–6, Hebrews 11:31)

With Jesus there is always possibility

- Your past does not have to limit your _____.
- Your failures can become a _____ of God's work.
- Your faith can open the way for greater _____.

The scarlet cord became a way of escape for the spies and the means of protection for Rehab. It was a foreshadowing of the blood of Jesus that provides escape and protection today.

Answers: transformation; pagan; prostitute; redemptive; shame, fame; future; place; opportunities

Want to listen again or share with a friend?
Sermon podcasts are available at gracecovenant.org or on our grace app.