

sermonnotes

Unsung Heroes: Jonathan

“The world is a dangerous place, not because of those who do evil, but because of those who look on and do nothing.” (Dr. Albert Einstein)

You will never take big hills without making _____
_____. It is a bias to action that positions us to live a life of significance.

“Most people don’t aim too high and miss. They aim too low and hit.” (Bob Moawad)

1 Samuel 14:6–15

Jonathan had a bias to action.

- He didn’t wait for the opportunity - he _____ it. (1 Samuel 14:6)
- His initiative was fueled by his _____ in God. (1 Samuel 14:6)
- His proactive _____ opened the way for God to work through his life. (1 Samuel 14:13–14)

- His willingness to move set the stage for a significant _____. (1 Samuel 14:15)

It’s your move

- What move might you need to take to open the way for God to work?

- Who do you need to travel with to fan your faith?

- Are you confident that as you step out to do God’s work, He will meet you?

In the end, people most often regret the chances they failed to take, not the chances they took and failed.

Answers: bold moves; created; confidence; response; victory;

Want to listen again or share with a friend?
Sermon podcasts are available at gracecovenant.org or on our grace app.