

sermonnotes

Live on Mission: Part 3

The 9 to 5 window, or the time that we go to work each day, is one of the most important _____ in the world today. The mission field is not just in another country, it is right where you work.

When you go to work you are taking Jesus into your place of work, and your place of employment becomes your mission field.

“The kind of work we do does not make us holy, but we make it holy...As we have the divine being within, we bless each task we do, be it eating or sleeping or watching, or any other task.”
—Meister Eckhart

The Marketplace as your Mission Field

- Almost all _____ are in the marketplace.
- Almost all _____ are in the marketplace.
- The marketplace is a more authentic _____ of Christianity.
- The marketplace is where we get to _____ out our faith.

1 Thessalonians 4:11–12, Colossians 3:23–24

1. Embrace a _____.
- See your work as your calling from God and your place of assignment. Your vocation is what you do to make a living, while your calling is to represent Jesus Christ.
2. View your work as _____ to God.
(Colossians 3:23)
- As you take your God-given abilities and put them to work, you are doing more than earning a paycheck. You are engaging in worship.
3. Serve with _____.
(1 Thessalonians 4:11)
- Whatever your role and responsibilities in the workplace, make it your goal to fulfill those responsibilities in a way that represents Jesus well.
4. Choose to be a _____ wherever God has you on assignment. (Matthew 5:14–16)

The marketplace is not just our place of work, but it is our place of opportunity to be the love and grace of Jesus Christ.

Answers: mission fields; non-Christians; Christians; showroom; live; mind-shift; worship; excellence; light

Want to listen again or share with a friend?
Sermon podcasts are available at gracecovenant.org or on our grace app.