Living Out Your Destiny: Part 5

Destiny is God's unique and preferred plan for your life.

The _____ of life can cause us to chase things that take us away from our destiny.

People who reach their potential and fulfill their destiny determine to act on their priorities and stay _____ on the things that really matter.

The Pitfall of Distractions

King Solomon was the wisest and richest King to ever rule in Israel because of God's plan and provision for his life, but what began well did not end well. God had a great destiny for King Solomon, but distractions _____ his destiny.

1 Kings 11:1–6, 9–11

The danger of distractions for King Solomon

- He allowed his desires and passions to override his _____ to honor God. (1 Kings 11:1–3)
- He allowed distractions to _____ him and he turned away from God. (1 Kings 11:9)
- He did not _____. The Kingdom was given to one of his subordinates. (1 Kings 11:11)

Guarding your life from distractions that rob your destiny

- Your destiny is discovered in your pursuit of _____, not things. (Proverbs 3:5–6)
- Allow God's Word to be your _____, not your fleshly desires. (1 Kings 11:2, Psalm 1:1–3)
- Don't allow comfort and success to lull you into _____. (1 Kings 11:4)
