

sermonnotes

The Cost of Disobedience

God is continually inviting us into a deeper relationship with Himself and inviting us to partner with Him in His work in our world. Our response determines the outcome.

Jonah was a prophet from the town of Gath Hopher which was located four miles north of Galilee. He was invited by God to be a part of a redemptive mission to the wicked Assyrian people.

Jonah 1:1–6

Just as God called Jonah so He calls each of us. Sometimes the assignments are small sometimes they are big, but they are all significant. When God calls, like Jonah, we have a decision to make.

Two Options

1. We can _____ and run from God.
 - When we run from God it is a...
 - Road of _____.
(Jonah 1:3)
 - Road of _____.
(Jonah 1:4–5)

- Road of _____.
(Jonah 1:15)
 - Not only will disobedience open our lives to consequences—most of the time it also negatively affects others.
2. We can _____ and run with God.
 - When we run with God it is a...
 - Road of _____.
(Jonah 3:3)
 - Road of discovered _____.
(Joshua 1:7–8)
 - Road of a _____ life.
(Romans 12:1–2)
 - The greatest blessing of obedience to God is that it opens the way for God to work in and through our lives to do more than we would ever think possible.

When God invites, and He will, may we find ourselves running to God not from God.

Answers: disobey; disappointments; disasters; demise; obey; purpose; potential; transformed

Want to listen again or share with a friend?
Sermon podcasts are available at gracecovenant.org or on our grace app.